

Acknowledgments	ix
About the Author	xi
About This Book	xiii

__ Understanding Documentation __

1	Introduction to Social Work Documentation	3
	History of Documentation	4
	History of Efforts to Teach Documentation	6
	Summary	7
2	Documentation Today	9
	Purposes of Documentation	12
	Ethics and Documentation	13
	Access to Case Files	16
	Impact of Technology	17
	Summary	18
3	Laying the Foundation	19
	Finding Information	19
	Confidentiality	20
	Informed Consent	21
	Agency Requirements	21
	When to Document	21
	Note Taking	22
	What to Document	22
	What Not to Document	23
	When to Write More	23
	When to Write Less	24
	Guidelines for Case Notes	24
	Summary and Exercises	25

4	Special Issues in Documentation	33
	Grammar and Usage	34
	Spelling	38
	Abbreviations	40
	Signatures	41
	Nondiscriminatory and People-First Language	41
	Specific, Concrete Language	41
	Legal Issues	43
	Summary and Exercises	45

— Sections of a Case Record —

5	Information Summary Sheets	73
	What Belongs on a Summary Sheet	73
	Summary and Exercises	75
6	Confidentiality, Release Forms, and Informed Consent Forms	79
	Confidentiality	80
	Informational Handouts	81
	Consent to Treat	82
	Fee Agreements	83
	Working Agreements	83
	Consent for Release of Confidential Information	84
	HIPAA Requirements	85
	Summary and Exercises	86
7	Assessments and Treatment Plans	91
	Writing Assessments	91
	Writing Treatment Plans	94
	Summary and Exercises	97
8	Documenting Client Progress	109
	Purpose of Progress Notes	109
	Frequency of Progress Notes	110
	General Considerations	111
	Progress Note Formats	112
	Contact Logs	118
	Periodic Service Reviews	119
	Termination Summaries	121
	Follow-up Notes	122
	Records of Group Sessions	123
	Summary and Exercises	124

9	Communication with and about Clients	137
	Letters	137
	E-mail Messages	142
	Using E-mail with Clients	143
	Transmitting Records Electronically	144
	Documenting Telephone Communications	145
	Documents Produced by Clients	145
	Summary and Exercises	146

— Beyond the Basics —

10	Getting and Giving Feedback	157
	Self-Review	158
	Peer Review	158
	Supervisory Review	161
	Process Recording	162
	Summary and Exercises	165
11	Supervision and Documentation	177
	Supervisory Records	178
	Supervisory Issues	181
	Summary and Exercises	184
12	The Future of Documentation	189
	Technology	190
	Emphasis on Outcomes	190
	Client Record Keeping	191
	Streamlining	191
	Skill Building for New Practitioners	191
	How Can Documentation Improve?	192
	Summary and Exercises	193
	References	197
	Index	203